

Robert Fischer

612 Sun Lake Dr.
St Charles, MO 63301

Phone: (630) 926-0815
Rfischer18@gmail.com

Aeronautical Experience

Total Airplane Flight Time: 2800 hours
Multi-Engine: 1000 hours
Pilot in Command: 2100 hours
Actual Instrument: 300 hours
Night: 600 hours
Turbine: 1700 hours
Multi-Engine Jet: 200 hours

Aircraft Flown

BE400 – 200 hrs
C402C – 815 hrs
C208B – 1475 hrs
C310R – 20 hrs
C172RG – 25 hrs
C172 – 195 hrs
PA28 – 17 hrs

Certifications

Airline Transport Pilot

- BE400/MU300 SIC Type Rating
- Airplane Multi Engine Land
- Airplane Single Engine Land

Certified Flight Instructor

- Airplane Single Engine

FCC Radiotelephone permit

Aviation Work Experience

Corporate Aircraft Management Inc – St. Louis Missouri

October 2012 – Present

First Officer (October 2012 – Present) – Operated as SIC under FAR part 135 and part 91 in a BeechJet 400A and 400XP as both Aircraft Management and Aircraft Charter

Cape Air – Rutland, Vermont and Marion, Illinois

August 2011 – October 2012

Captain (August 2011 – October 2012) – Operated as PIC under FAR part 135 in a Cessna 402C into and out of Boston International Airport and St Louis International Airport

Pacific Wings – Athens Georgia, Jackson Tennessee, and Albuquerque, New Mexico

March 2010 – August 2011

Instructor Pilot (January 2010 – August 2011) – Assisted the Chief Pilot in the training of new employees, Captain upgrades, and recurrent training. This included both ground and flight training in a Cessna 208B Grand Caravan.

Assistant Chief Pilot (January 2010 – August 2011) – Assisted the chief pilot in organizing and maintaining the operation of the airline at all the pilot bases listed above. These duties included: scheduling pilots, compiling monthly reports for the DOT, performed in flight evaluations of flight crews, conducting monthly safety meetings, etc.

Captain (December 2010 – August 2011) – Operated as PIC under FAR part 135 into and out of Atlanta International, Nashville International, and Albuquerque International in a Cessna 208B Grand Caravan.

First Officer (March 2010 – December 2010) – Operated in a professional airline crew environment in a C208B.

Semo Skydiving – Cairo, Illinois

August 2009 – November 2009

Pilot – Transported skydivers to altitude in a Cessna 206.

Activities

Alpha Eta Rho Sigma Chapter - International Aviation Fraternity Southern Illinois University

President – Arranged all fraternal events both professional and social (May 2009 – December 2009)

Vice President – Arranged an aviation banquet including a guest speaker for SIU Aviation (May 2008 – May 2009)

Active member – Participated in the planning of aviation related events. (May 2007 – December 2009)

Education

Associate in Aviation Flight - Southern Illinois University Carbondale – 2009